

HAPPY FACE by Jo Cotterill

V1: Is this me? Is this you?

Is this the best that we can do?

Hiding behind a web of lies

Hoping you can't see in my eyes

Tell a joke, be a clown

Don't let you see when I am down

Keep all my worries deep inside

Don't let you know I cried

Cos I'm a happy face

Hiding an empty space

Yes I'm a happy face

But if you could see beyond the smile

Would you still be there?

Would you want to be my friend,

Would you even care?

Cos I'm a happy face

Hiding an empty space

V2: Life is cool, life is fun

That's what I tell everyone

Nothing you say can hurt me, see?

That's my identity

Cos I'm a happy face

Hiding an empty space

Yes, I'm a happy face

But if you could see beyond the smile

Would you still be there?

Would you want to be my friend,

Would you even care?

Cos I'm a happy face

Hiding an empty space

(Instrumental)

And if you could see beyond the smile

Would you still be there?

Would you want to be my friend,

Would you even care?

Cos I'm a happy face

Hiding an empty space

Yes I'm a happy face

Hiding an empty space

Being a big disgrace

To the whole human race

Keeping my smile in place

Remember my happy face . . .
